I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Today’s anthem: “Though I speak with tongues of angels, though my voice is touched with gold, without love each word is discord, clanging brass and cymbals bold. Though I know as much as prophets, thought my faith is strong and sure, without love, these are as nothing, neither words nor work endure. Though I give my good to others, and my flesh I give to burn, without love each gift is worthless, till the gift of love I learn. Love is always kind and patient, neither jealous, boastful, rude. Neither selfish nor conceited, but with every grace imbedded. Love releases all resentment, takes no pleasure in the wrong. Love finds truth delightful always, and endures what comes along. Though not easily offended, love is eager to forgive. Always trusting, always hoping, precious love will always live! To a world that is imperfect, many gifts will pass away. Faith and hope and love are endless. These and these alone will stay. To a world where all is changing comes this promise from above: faith and hope will last forever, but the greatest gift is love.”
