

Thad's Thoughts

When I first met Brett Maddocks in 2009, he was fresh out of seminary, he was pursuing ordination in the South Georgia Annual Conference, and he was part of a group of emerging clergy that I was helping to lead. I knew then that Brett was going places in ministry, and he was someone who I wanted to get to know on a deeper level. Within that group, Brett showed enormous potential with his energetic preaching, his depth of Bible knowledge, and his charismatic personality that drew everyone in like a best friend. Over the past thirteen years, I have come to know Brett in all of the ways mentioned, above and I feel certain that you have as well.

When I was appointed to St. Luke one year ago, I was so excited that I would get to work with my friend Brett. The reality is that Brett could have had his own church at any time over the past thirteen years, and he would have done a great job leading as a Senior Pastor. However, the timing wasn't ever quite right, and so he has continued to bless and serve this church faithfully. Last year was another chance for him to take his own church, but he was willing to stay on staff for one more year to help me get on board. For that I will be forever grateful.

Starting Sunday, June 19th, Brett will become the Senior Pastor of Pine Forest UMC in Dublin, GA. Therefore, this Sunday, June 5th will be his last Sunday with us. Brett will be preaching all three worship services, and we will have a reception for him during the Sunday School hour in Stockwell Hall. Brett, Jessica, Eli and Jack will be sorely missed around our campus. Each one of them have woven their way into the fabric of St. Luke, and their time here will always be cherished. Please plan to join me in giving thanks to Brett and his family as we send them off with our blessing. They will forever be a part of the St. Luke family, and the St. Luke family will forever be a part of them. Thus, as we say in Methodist circles, it is never good-bye, just see you around.

We love you Maddocks family!

HOW DO I JOIN THE CHURCH?

You may become a part of the St. Luke family of God in one of the following ways:

1. If you have never joined a church before, you may become a member by profession of faith in Jesus Christ and by being baptized. If you have already been baptized (as a child or as an adult) in a Christian Church, your baptism is recognized by St. Luke United Methodist Church. You will be asked to uphold St. Luke church with your prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness.
 2. If you are a member of another United Methodist Church or another Christian denomination, indicate to one of the pastors that this is your desire. St. Luke will then transfer your membership.
 3. If you have any questions about faith in Christ, about United Methodism in general or St. Luke in particular, please ask one of the pastors!
